NEW YORK STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

4,000,000 SHARES

was bargain day.

Trading for the day was perhaps the heaviest in the history of Wall Street, heavier even than the great days when Northern Pacific was concerned, Ticker reports account for more than $,000,000 shares today. In addition to this, "stopped" stock and the odd lots which together amount to fully 40 per cent of the regular trading, were not reported on. the regular trading, were not reported on the tape. Therefore the day's total was asily well above 4.000,000 shares on the loor. The curb and the Consolidated Ex-phange also dealt in record volumes. Today's market is looked upon as marking the culmination of the peace raid. The opening of the market was active palamity seemed to have fallen on every thing. Steel was watched most closely, next to Union Pacific. Steel lost nearly four points in the first few minutes of trading. Union Pacific stood firm and that braced up the whole list.

Another selling movement carried Stee down, but Rails still held firm and Steel rallied more than a point, reaching 1051-3 on this upward movement. Then the Union Pacific directors announced an extra dividend of 2 per cent. So the sell-ing won on up to the very close of the day. Steel came within one-eighth of par. It was evident that the banking fraternity feared to let it sell at par lest myriad of stock loss orders would be rered. Steel quickly advanced to That started covering in the entire Final prices were a shade better than the worst. Net losses for the day were serious in nearly all issues.

Marine issues, which had a bad break yesterday, were about the steadlest in the
